

Food Vendor Application

The Art Deco Weekend Festival was started in 1978 by the Miami Design Preservation League to attract visitors to Miami Beach's Art Deco District and to raise awareness and appreciation of the arts and culture of the Art Deco era (approximately 1925–1945). In 2008, the festival attracted more than a quarter million visitors. Next year's event will take place Friday through Sunday, January 16–18, 2009, with the theme Down Argentine Way: Deco • Vino • Tango.

VENDOR REQUIREMENTS

All Food Vendors will be required to provide liability insurance, a fee for site clean-up, and a temporary license from the Florida Department of Business & Professional Regulation (DBPR) Division of Hotels and Restaurants. Rates for clean-up and temporary licenses will be sent to food vendors at a later date.

All rates are subject to change and do not include electrical services or tables and chairs. Your completed Electricity Order Form and Menu and Price List must be attached to this application in order for your application to be accepted.

NEXT STEPS

Upon acceptance of your application, you will receive a Vendor Contract and a copy of the Rules and Regulations. If you wish to confirm the receipt of your application, please send application via the United States Postal Service, using the "Certified Receipt Requested" service. Vendors not accepted into the festival will receive a letter of notification and a refund of the deposit.

OFFICIAL PROGRAM LISTING

The deadline for having your name published in the Art Deco Weekend Official Program is 15 October 2008 (only vendors who have paid in full by this date will be listed.) Please write your company name in this application as you would like it to appear in the program, and keep your food description brief so it will fit in the Food Vendor listing.

Electricity Order Form

Vendor Name: _____ Telephone _____

Electricity is required as the festival hours run past sunset.

No electricity or lighting will be supplied in any booth or space unless this order form is completed and payment made in full by 31 December 2008. All appliances and electrical equipment are subject to inspection by MDPL/Art Deco Weekend, its agents, contractors, and Miami Beach City Officials. Any vendor using appliances or equipment (especially extension cords) not suitable for hook-up will be closed down immediately. MDPL/Art Deco Weekend and its contracted electricians will refuse connections where wiring is not in accordance with local electrical code. Your electric usage is subject to verification by ADW contracted electricians. Violators may be fined and/or disconnected without notice. Drawing more electricity than ordered causes blackouts and fire hazards for all and is deemed a serious offense.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Please be advised that due to new regulations in the National Electricity Code, and in order to provide additional safety to everyone concerned, we will provide power which is Ground Fault Protected. Please assure yourself that all equipment you wish to use in the 2009 show has been tested to be free from any leakage to the ground, otherwise the circuit will cut off creating inconveniences to you and perhaps other people on the sale line in which case power will be permanently cut to that particular device. We suggest that all plug-in equipment be tested on a bathroom or garage receptacle with a GFI.
